AN EXTREMELY FINE PART SILK ISFAHAN RUG, CENTRAL PERSIA

The soft ivory field with scrolling vine issuing serreted palmettes and leafy sprays, around central multicoloured concentric floral medallion with pendants. Light beige spandrels similar. In light beige border of similar design, between floral, arabesques and plain stripes, approx: 236cm x 149cm. Very good example for this type, very good soft colours. This rug has full pile of soft kurk wool quality,. Very slight discolouration in one side, possibly improved with light cleaning( subject to professional quote). Extremely fine weave, approx 10 x 10 knots per sq. cm. Ends original with kilim and fringes. Salvages also original. Signature cartouche at one end. Attractive.
